

Advertise your business to our audiences...

The Grand Rapids Choir of Men and Boys is preparing its program for the 2014-15 season. Now in its 25th year the Choir continues to serve the West Michigan community.

Last year the Choir performed 18 performances throughout West Michigan, attracting a diverse community of concert goers. Several of our performances had standing room only audiences!

Jeffrey Kaczmarczyk of the Grand Rapids Press wrote:

With just one week to go before Christmas, the shopping malls may have been filled Friday, but so was the Cathedral of St. Andrew for the program led by artistic and musical director Scott Bosscher. The program was free, with an offering, so there were no tickets to count. From my point of view in the balcony, I'd say at least 600 were present.

This year the Choir has four programs, singing multiple performances of each, in November, December, March and May.

Your ads will be placed in all four programs and read by over 8,000 potential customers. Ads submitted after the November performance will be printed in the next four programs.

GRCMB is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization
